Rate Your Experience on Customer Lobby (please!)

We need your assistance! Recently, we lost all of the existing ratings from our old customer feedback system when Rate Point suddenly went out of business. We appreciate that over 800 of you had said such nice things about your experience with Wallpaper For Windows and it was very upsetting to have lost them.

We've signed up with a new system and would like your help. Please take a few moments to click through to Customer Lobby and write a review of your recent purchase.
