New Tudor Design Decoratively Creates A Secure Look

Decoratively give windows and glass doors a more secure look with the timeless style of the Tudor Leaded Glass Design.

When a few feet or more away from the glass, Tudor's 3/16" thick leading lines give the impression of a window or door that will be difficult to break into. Causing potential problems to move on down the road in search of easier prey.

The Tudor design coordinates with decor styles from Old English to country to commercial to modern and contemporary.

Tudor is available in privacy and see-through versions. Privacy version combines Lite Frost with the leading lines, obscuring visibility through the glass without darkening the room.

See-thru version features a leading line grid on a clear film. Allowing visibility through the glass, plus the benefits of UV protection and energy savings.

Tudor Leading Lines create a look of security on windows, glass doors.

New York'ers Upset When People Look Into Their Windows

A recent art gallery showing has upset many residents of a swanky NY residential building. The artwork features pictures of the buildings residents "taken from outside the building" and without the persons knowledge. The images do not contain nudity nor show anyone's face, they are mostly pictures of the everyday life of families - taken by a tele-photo lense from across the street. Read the USA Today article

This is a problem easily solved with Wallpaper For Windows. To stop people from looking in from below, add a privacy film to the bottom of a window or door. (If the balcony has glass panels, apply Wallpaper for Windows to the panels for privacy. It won't bother the film to be outside 24/7 365 days a year. :-))

Easily add privacy to the bottom of a window.

One of the reasons we offer matching privacy and see-through designs is so a window can have privacy on the bottom and see-thru above. But there are many great ways to decoratively add privacy to the bottom of a window. From a simple frosted look, to a Living room windows with privacy window film Tropical Oasis.

Easily add privacy to the bottom of a window. privacy film of a solid color to designs like the Tropical Oasis 48" x 24" design, the Allure 24" x 48" (turned sideways), Everleaf and many many more.

If while reading this you realized your neighbors may be getting more of a show than you would like, Wallpaper For Windows is the solution.

Article Compares Window Films

A very informative window film article in the current version of the NY Real Estate Journal compares adhesive and adhesive-free (static cling) films.

We may be a little bit biased, but the article rated adhesive-free window film Wallpaper For Windows as best value for do-it-yourself home and office films. Read the article.
