Decorate Your Glass Doors

This month we're highlighting the amazing transformations that come from decorating your glass doors with Wallpaper for Windows. Whether you're seeking to add privacy or not, it's an inexpensive and easy way to makeover any room in your home or office.

Your ordinary glass doors can be quickly transformed into beautiful stained glass that looks like it cost hundreds of dollars.

Our selection includes both classic leaded glass looks and colorful designs that are sure to enhance any decor.

Biscayne Stained Glass Window Film - See-Through

Mirage Stained Glass Privacy Window Film

Our privacy films, like the Mirage Stained Glass (above), obscure visibility through the glass day and night. But unlike heavy curtains or blinds, they allow light to stream in. Not worried about privacy? Our see-through options provide you with UV protection and energy savings without blocking your view.

New Designs + New Colors

We're recently expanded our selection to include 10+ new designs, with 6 beautiful color options available for many of our etched glass patterns.

Shown here (right) is our Ritz in Privacy design. Also available in see-through, Ritz brings a timeless elegance to any space.

Another stunning new pattern is our Orleans in Color (below), which is also available in Privacy or See-through. The Orleans design features a timeless architectural style that works with almost any decor, from traditional to contemporary. Check out all of our new looks and see how easy it is to use Wallpaper Windows to decorate.
